

Acts 2: 42.

They devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and to the fellowship, to the breaking of bread and to prayer.

- Prayer audit – Think about the past week or maybe just today and reflect on where and how you prayed. You could share it with the group or keep it private.

When is it hard to pray?

Are prayers always answered?

What should prayers be about?

How does it feel when you talk to God?

Was it easier to pray when you were younger?

- Read Luke 11:1-13

Is the Lord's Prayer helpful to you?

Is learning it by heart still relevant and important in today's context?

What strikes you about the second half of the passage?

- Have a go at writing your own "Prayer for the Day" with tomorrow in mind (example on a separate sheet)

Acts 2:42

They devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and to the fellowship, to the breaking of bread and to prayer.

- Prayer audit – Think about the past week or maybe just today and reflect on where and how you prayed. You could share it with the group or keep it private.

When is it hard to pray?

Are prayers always answered?

What should prayers be about?

How does it feel when you talk to God?

Was it easier to pray when you were younger?

- Read Luke 11:1-13

Is the Lord's Prayer helpful to you?

Is learning it by heart still relevant and important in today's context?

What strikes you about the second half of the passage?

- Have a go at writing your own "Prayer for the Day" with tomorrow in mind (example on a separate sheet)