

'A Taste of Christmas'

Saturday, 2nd December

2.00pm - 4.00pm in the Library

As we were unable to hold our Fireworks event this year, our community event will be 'A Taste of Christmas' which will consist of a 'concert' of songs, poems, readings, carols, jokes and, maybe, a little drama, all with a Christmas theme.

As space in the adult library is limited to 70, there will be 50 free tickets given out by library staff and the rest will be available for us to give to friends and neighbours. After the concert, in the Children's library, our guests will be able to have free drinks, mince pies etc., and there will be some games for both children and adults to have a go at. We also hope to have a sales table with items suitable for Christmas gifts – all money raised will be donated to the library.

Obviously we will need volunteers – for the concert (we've already got plenty of poets!), but if you could fill one of the other slots, please let Liz or Angela know; to make tea and coffee and serve the refreshments; to take charge of the games; and to make items for the sales table.

I know it's a lot to ask to give up a Saturday afternoon so near to Christmas, especially if you've been working all week, but this is our chance to bless our community and share Jesus at a time when He can be so easily forgotten. We will be giving away the Christmas edition of Hope magazine, plus a card with all our Christmas services on, to all our guests.

Sign-up sheets are on the doors in the Church Hall, so PLEASE put your name down if you possibly can. Thank you!!
